BEYOND THE RIVER

Away Across the Mississippi is Held a Convincing Conversation.

"I tell you, sir, that they are one of the neatest combinations ever produced, and my experience of that sort of thing has been wide enough to entitle my judgment to some respect."

"Oh, I don't know," responded the first speaker's friend, with a little yawn, as though he didn't take much interest in the subject, "I have never been able to see much difference in those things. They are all pretty nearly the same size and made of about the same stuff."

The talk, of which the foregoing is a fragment, took place in Gallatin, Missouri, not long ago, in the snug office of Dr. M. P. Flowers, one of the leading physicians of the state, who followed up the vein in which he first introduced it substantially in these words:

"Nonsense; that is the rigmarole of a boy, or rather of a man who either doesn't know or doesn't care what he says. Those things, as you call them, are just as different as the moon is from green cheese Now, liniments, lotions and ointmen ts are very good in most cases for the relief of pain or inflammation. But, in the first place, they are unclean. They soil the hands and the linen, besides being always out of reach when they are most wanted."

"Well, my dear Doctor," sighed the traveler from the North, "what would you have? This is a wretched world anyhow, and nothing is ever at hand when it is wanted. You can't suggest anything —"

"Yes, I can," broke in the Doctor, thumping the table with his fist. "I can suggest BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. I have tried it on my patients, and in all cases relief has followed in from three to forty-eight hours. The old plasters are stage coaches—the Capcine is a telegraphic dispatch. For instance in cases of Neuralgia, Muscular Rheumatism, Lumbago, retarded action of the Kidneys, and—"

"I give it up, Doctor, and in case of need I'll buy Benson's," said the traveler, pleasantly.

In the center of the genuine is CUT the word CAPCINE.

THE POSTMASTER-GENERAL.

The GAZETTE's dispatches to-day announce the death of Postmaster-General Howe. Judge Howe was born at Livermore, Maine, February 24, 1816, and after receiving an academic education studied law and was admitted to the bar. He was a member of the Legislature of Maine in 1845, in the latter part of which year he removed to Wisconsin, where he was elected Judge of the Circuit and Supreme Courts, and was elected to the U. S. Senate, as a Union-Republican, to succeed Charles Durkee. He took his seat in 1861, and was re-elected to the Senate in 1867 and 1873. During these eighteen years he held important committee positions, being one of the most prominent and influential members of the Senate. His term expired March 3, 1879. The famous triangular contest over the election of his successor, and in which Judge Howe, E. W. Keyes and Matthew Carpenter participated, which finally ended in the election of Carpenter, will be re-called. Judge Howe returned to Green Bay, Wisconsin, where he made his home. He was not permitted, however, to remain long in retirement. He was tendered by President Garfield the appointment as member of the board sent by the United States to represent this Government in the International Monetary Congress at Paris, his associates being ex-Senator Thurman of Ohio and William M. Evarts of New York. He remained abroad about six months and soon after his return was prominently mentioned as a possible member of President Arthur's Cabinet. In December, 1881, he was tendered the Postmaster-Generalship, which he accepted, and to the duties of which he has since devoted his attention. He strongly favored the reduction of postage made by the last Congress, and has been largely instrumental in securing improved mail facilities throughout the country.

The present rainfall thus far noted in California prevails principally in the northern counties of the State. The rain has been quite heavy in some localities during the past 24 hours, and light in others. The advantages to growing crops are great. Heavy showers are prevailing around the Bay, and it is thought the course of the storm is southward, where the greatest need of rain is felt.

The Modoc Independent has changed hands. D. C. Slater is now sole proprietor.

Testimonial to the British Consul.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.

Hon. Wm. Lane Booker, British Consul, who has recently been promoted to the position of Consul General at New York, was the recipient of an elegant testimonial this afternoon from the Board of Fire Underwriters of San Francisco. The testimonial consisted of a miniature redwood tree of oxydized silver. The tree sets on a stand composed of 16 different kinds of California woods. The present is a most elegant one and cost about $1,000. A banquet will be given Mr. Booker on Friday evening.

I. E. James, an old Comstocker, Murdered by Indians.

TOMBSTONE, March 23.

Henry Fuller, a resident of this place, came in from the Custom-house at San Pedro to-day, and states that two Mexicans arrived there yesterday, who reported that they had found a dismantled buggy and two dead bodies in the road. From their description there is no doubt that they are those of I. E. James of the Contention mine, and C. M. Thorndyke, son of Captain Thorndyke, who had such a narrow escape on Tuesday morning.

The Welcome Rain.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.

Dispatches from Yreka, Red Bluff, Germantown, Colusa, Willows, St. Helena, Rio Vista, Chico, Wheatland, Redding, Dixon, Petaluma, Spanishtown and Martinez state that more or less rain has fallen or is falling in those places.

Trying to Resuscitate a Dead Newspaper.

CHICAGO, March 25.

A Washington special says the Washington office of the New York World closed last night under orders from the home office. The Star says: Since Jay Gould secured control of the paper it has cost him $3,000 to $5,000 per week beyond receipts to keep it going, and that having decided to travel he concluded to drop such nonpaying investments, but that William Henry Hurlburt, its editor, pleaded for the privilege of trying to put it on a paying basis and was given the opportunity, and at once proceeded to cut down the expenses right and left. He discharged musical and dramatic critics, five night editors, sixteen reporters, city editor, assistant city editor and eight compositors, relying upon the local news bureau for news. This was followed by cropping off its Washington bureau. Among the editors discharged is A. Oakey Hall, ex-Mayor of New York.

The Work of Uncovering an Underground Horror.

BRAIDWOOD, Ills., March 25.

Early Saturday morning at the Diamond mine a man descended to the bottom, and after exploring for a short distance in different directions he went into the south workings, which were found in better condition than the others. About five steps from the starting point he discovered the body of one of the drowned miners, water-soaked and bloated beyond recognition, and a little further on another in the same condition. Without proceeding further he came to the surface, and on consultation it was decided to keep the matter quiet for fear of large crowds assembling before the regular searching party entered.

The President's Son in Love.

WASHINGTON, March 25.

"Gath" is authority for the statement that when President Arthur heard his son was engaged to the daughter of Congressman Crowley of Lockport, he took the young man to task, and finally persuaded him to break the affair off. This did not please the young lady's mother, who, to save the family pride from open jars, packed her daughter up and went with her to the Pacific Coast until gossip should cool down somewhat.

Muscle is Wealth --- Sullivan's Stake.

NEW YORK, March 25.

It is estimated that John L. Sullivan, the pugilist, has cleared $45,000 within the past year. Slade and Mace are coining money on the strength of the former having come from Australia for the alleged purpose of meeting Sullivan, though subsequent proceedings do not indicate that he is very anxious to do so. Competent sporting men think Sullivan could knock him out in five minutes.

Hitting the Church Members Very Hard.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., March 25.

Much excitement was occasioned to-night by the distribution in the church vestibule of circulars alleging great corruption in town affairs, and giving reasons why the Board of selectmen should not be re-elected. It presents a list of names of proprietors of bagnios and unlicensed liquor saloons with the sum of money each pays monthly to the police for hush money.

A Crooked Postmaster.

BATESVILLE, Ark., March 25.

Postmaster W. J. Parson has been arrested, and his sureties have taken charge of the office. He is charged with unlawfully delaying registered packages. It seems that crookedness has been going on in this office some time. Recent developments show that several registered packages have been rifled.

Aid for Ireland.

WATERBURY, Conn., March 26.

To-morrow Rev. Lawrence Welsh will cable for relief of distress in Ireland $8,169, which sum has come to him since last Wednesday. A letter from Bishop Logue of Donegal says: "Were it not for the substantial aid sent from America our people would die of starvation."

A Masonic Embezzler.

CHICAGO, March 25.

John F. Burrell, ex-Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Illinois, convicted at Carlinville on Friday of embezzling the funds of that body, was arrested here last night as a fugitive from justice.

Our Senator's Movements.

WASHINGTON, March 25.

Senator Jones of Nevada will leave here Wednesday for New York to join his family, and will remain there about ten days before leaving for the Pacific slope.

Distinguished Arrivals.

NEW YORK, March 25.

Billy Madden and his English pugilist, Charles Mitchell, who defeated Tug Wilson, arrived in this city today. He expresses a desire to meet either Sullivan or Slade.

A Woman to be Hanged in Vermont Next Friday.

BOSTON, March 26.

A special from Windsor, Vermont, states that Mrs. Meaker, who is to be hanged on Friday, realizes the certainty of her doom. She knits and sews all the time, and is strictly guarded by an officer, but keeps her own counsel and is anxious to see the gallows before she goes out for the last time. She says she will walk alone, for her conscience is clear, and adds that her murderers will repent some day. She evinces no sorrow for her past deeds, and has no desire for religious consolation. Being very deaf, it is extremely hard to converse with her. This being the first woman executed in New England, much interest is felt to see how she will go through the scene, and many applications have been made to see the execution, which will be conducted as privately as the law demands.

A Close Call for a Convict.

PITTSBURG, March 26.

Six years ago a Mrs. McCready disappeared. About four years later Silas Gray was arrested on the testimony of an ex-convict. Upon that a woman's skull found in the river convicted him of murdering her. Governor Pattison signed the death warrant Wednesday, fixing May 24th for the execution. Yesterday a reporter found a wood-chopper living at the foot of South Mountain, near Shippensburg, who makes affidavit that a man named Jack Pettis confessed to him that he had killed the woman. Pettis was a convict in the Penitentiary, and committed suicide soon after making the confession. The Governor will reprieve Gray.

Death of Postmaster General Howe.

WASHINGTON, March 25.

The President received this evening telegraphic information of the sudden death this afternoon at his home in Wisconsin, of Postmaster General Howe. In consequence of this unexpected event, the dinner which was to have been given Tuesday by the President to ex-President Diaz of Mexico, who is to arrive in Washington Monday morning as the guest of the nation, will not take place. The reception to have been given to the same distinguished guest by Secretary Frelinghuysen Wednesday evening will not take place.

A Murderer Notified to Leave Town.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 26.

Dukes arrived here from his stepfather's last night, and this morning a committee of citizens waited on him with resolutions adopted at an indignation meeting recently held. They also gave notice that he would have 24 hours to transact business and leave town. If he attempts to remain it is thought there will be trouble.

Roasted Himself.

EL DORADO, Kansas, March 25.

The building used as a fire engine-house and jail was fired last night by a drunken inmate named Frank C. Hamilton, and the building and contents destroyed together with Hamilton, who was roasted alive.

An Exciting Episode in an English Church.

The dog-poisoner is abroad. Two good animals yesterday succumbed to dosed beef. Cook's fine setter came near being caught, but raw eggs and salt saved him. If the malicious individual can be spotted he will probably get dosed himself.

Jacobs, the tailor, has a fine line of suitings which he can make up in prevailing styles. His work is always substantial and lasting, and will bear the closest scrutiny. He also has on hand a good assortment of gents' furnishing goods. Call in and give Jacobs an order. *

George Becker breaks out into a broad grin when a stranger asks, "Where's this beer made?" It is hard to make them believe that the Pacific Brewery makes as good beer as any other establishment on the coast. But it's a fact, for what everybody says must be true. *

SIERRA VALLEY ITEMS.

Scraps From the Most Virtuous Burg in California.

Sierra Valley Leader items of March 23:

Mining is active in the vicinity of Mohawk Valley.

Everybody is busy now-a-days. The ranchers are engaged in plowing and seeding.

The Marguerite mine, near Sierra City, talk of running all of their works by water power.

The general condition of the roads is said to be good throughout the valley, and the roads in the mountains are rapidly improving.

Wash Gigger, in company with several experienced miners has started out to prospect the country lying between Loyalton and Long Valley, and proposes reopening the ledges in the vicinity of Staverville, abandoned twenty years ago. The town of Silver City will be laid out, which will eventually become a second Virginia City.

The ranchers and stockmen hereabouts and more especially those at the lower end are beginning to feel alarmed over the continued dry state of the weather. No serious damage has yet resulted, but should no storms come soon, the hay and grain crops will be exceedingly light. There is not much snow on the hills, and the water supply in reserve is not sufficient to insure a full crop.

Last Tuesday afternoon John Hall, who was working in Fagg's shingle mill, and engaged in edging shingles, had his hand mangled in a shocking manner. While brushing off some dust from the block, the sawyer not noticing him started the machine and the hand was forced against the saw, carrying away the first two fingers of the right hand, a portion of the thumb and about half the hand, cutting it nearly down to the wrist.

Spearing Trout.

There is a strong kick against Indians spearing fish, and the chances are that the hook-and-line fishermen will make trouble with the redskins if they don't drop the spear.

MORE ESCAPES.

Dan Matheny and Charles Angelo Escape From the Penitentiary.

Saturday evening the report of a pistol in the front yard at the State Prison disturbed the slumbers of the inmates of that usually quiet retreat. The authorities were soon out to see what was wrong, when they found Charles Angelo, a young man sent from Storey county for burglarizing the jewelry store of Mr. Manning, and serving a seven years' sentence, in charge of the outside guard, when he was supposed to be safely locked in cell No. 37. Upon making an investigation it was discovered that Angelo and Dan Matheny, sent from White Pine county in 1873 to serve a life sentence for murder in the second degree, had left their bed and board without just cause or provocation. Matheny occupied No. 37, one of the boiler-iron, tank cells, on the upper tier, three or four years ago, and was cutting his way out, working at the job nights, assisted by his cell mates, filling the holes with putty to hide his work from the officers and guards during the daytime. He had his job well in hand when he was detected and removed to another cell. Since that time it has been one of his fondest hopes to be placed back in cell No. 37. Very recently he succeeded in having the long-looked-for change made. Since the warm weather commenced Matheny and Angelo, who has the reputatation of being quite an expert cracksman, have been at work on the unfinished job, and late Saturday night they succeeded in removing an iron plate about 13 inches square from the lower or back end of their cell, which admitted them to the cell room. A few minutes was all the twain required to cut a hole in the roof and out they went into the open air. They had provided themselves with moccasins, and could walk over the roof of the building without making any noise. The guard saw them about the same moment they saw him, when Matheny jumped through the scuttle leading from the stable cells to guard post No. 2, on the main building, and dodged out into the front yard, over the back fence or wall and took to the brush. The guard managed to stop Angelo, who showed that he did not care to take the chances of being perforated. Matheny took to the hills west of Carson with the intention of crossing the mountains, but finding it too much, he changed his course into Washoe Valley, and reached there about daylight Sunday morning. He worked his way to R. D. Gammon's ranch, where he was "holed" by R. D. Gammon, George Smith and W. D. Hailey. When Matheny found he was sure to be taken he crawled from under a sage brush and surrendered himself to Mrs. Gammon, who was near by. The lady gave him a good dinner, after which he was brought to Reno and delivered to Sheriff Emmitt. The two men had made pants and coats from blankets and had laid in a supply of provisions to last them a few days. Matheny had two pair of blanket pants, underclothing, etc., to last him while making his escape out of the county, but being closely pursued by the guard in the prison yard he was obliged to drop his "grip sack." His moccasins were soon worn out, and when captured he was bare-footed. Deputy Warden Coulter took the prisoner back to Carson this morning.

LASSEN ITEMS.

Culled from the Columns of Our Susanville Exchange.

The following are from the Advocate of the 22nd:

B. F. Shumway has fitted up his saw-mill on Madalene Plains ready for the Summer's work. He intends sawing a large amount of lumber this season.

Susanville presents a very deserted appearance, occasioned by the idle men who have been here all Winter finding employment on the various ranches hereabout.

A Band of Hope has been recently organized at this place.

All the farmers who have been feeding cattle during the Winter have turned them out on the various ranges. Grass is short, but abundant.

Wm. Williams has purchased another large band of sheep in Tulare county, and will drive them to Utah.

The friends of the late Mrs. Ida M. Chinn, who died at the Lafayette House, in Reno, a few days ago, return thanks for the many courtesies and kind favors extended her.

Important to Farmers.

J. L. McFarlin has been appointed general agent for the Fish Bros.' Bain and Studebaker wagons and buggies for this State, and John P. Cannon traveling agent for this State. These gentlemen are also agents for the best agricultural implements manufactured, comprising mowers, reapers, seeders, sowers, etc. Farmers will find it to their advantage to communicate with Mr. McFarlin or Mr. Cannon before purchasing. They are determined to sell a large number of wagons, and the prices are marked down to the last notch. Both gentlemen are perfectly reliable, and farmers or others entrusting business to them will be highly pleased. Address John P. Cannon, care of J. L. McFarlin, Reno, Nev., or J. L. McFarlin, General agent. Read ad. under "new to-day."

PERSONALS.

Brief Mention of the Movements of Notables and Others.

Wm. H. Crisler was in town last night.

E. A. Skillman, Eureka, was a passenger west last night.

H. Steel, from Tulare, is now night operator at the depot.

Billy Halbert came in from Duck Flat yesterday after L. G. Clark.

H. A. Billings and W. A. Clark of Mason Valley are at the Palace.

H. M. Yerington's health is improving. He has been quite ill for some time.

Charley Davis ("Pinky"), son of the General, is bunged up with rheumatism.

Bishop Whitaker went to San Francisco yesterday to preach Volney Spaulding's funeral sermon.

Pat Henry of Verdi is sick. He had a severe pain across him yesterday. Too much Spring vegetables.

Gen. Kittrell returned home Sunday morning, from Fairfield, Cal., where he has been on professional business.

W. C. Chapin, the great artesian well borer, from White Plains, Churchill county, was a passenger for the Bay last evening.

R. R. Parkinson of the Tribune came over from Carson yesterday to take a farewell look at the face of his old friend, J. C. Lewis.

If Albert Semeran will communicate with R. F. Hoy, Secretary of Reno Lodge, No. 19, I. O. O. F., he will hear something to his advantage.

Uncle Isaac Barnett intends taking a trip north very shortly. He has fitted up a wagon for taking a full stock of dry goods for his customers north.

Ex-Sheriff Walker came in from Utah on last night's train, en route to San Francisco. He will spend a few days here looking after business for the firm he represents.

The funeral of J. C. Lewis was largely attended yesterday. Friends came from all sections to pay the last tribute of respect to deceased, who was well known all over the State and coast.

Contrary to expectations, Uncle Billy Mann has got out again. A week ago he was thought to be as good as dead, yet he turns up smiling again, but the grin is not very broad, as yet.

A. A. (Pete) Evans returned from Los Angeles and San Francisco yesterday morning. Mr. Evans has had a severe spell of sickness since he left here, but returns much improved in health.

J. R. King, master of tronsportation on the V. & T., with Charles Gilchrist, the Mono lake wood man, and others are trying to catch all the trout in the Truckee between the railroad bridges and Glendale. When one gets a bite they shake hands all round. Meanwhile the fish gets away.

TRUCKEE ITEMS.

Scraps of Interest From Our Neighbor in the Hills.

Gleaned from the Republican of March 24th:

Every one is getting ready for Tahoe. The season promises to be an unusually early and brilliant one, and the different hotels are being put in order for the early tourists. Many improvements are being made at Tahoe.

Donner lake is open, and fish are biting. Teeters is getting his boats in shape, and every day sees a party driving along the road taking a look at the beauties of this wonderful lake, or trying a throw after one of the finny treasures that inhabit its bosom.

Truckee has been very quiet the past week and as orderly as a Presbyterian prayer meeting. Nothing has occurred to disturb the serenity of public affairs.

Mr. Dibble, Fish Commissioner, is expected here to-morrow, and it is hoped that while here he will give some degree of attention to the fish-ladders in this section. The ladder at Camp 20 is said to be two feet out of water, and that the trout cannot get past it. The Truckee river used to abound in the speckled beauties, but the reckless carelessness of owners of dams in providing proper fish-ways has nearly cleaned the river out. The great hue and cry of sawdust has about subsided. Now let the proper officers inspect the fish-ladders at the different dams, and there will be no trouble about plenty of fish in the river.

Truckee is fast gaining a reputation that strikes terror to the hearts of tramps and vagrants. As fast as they appear they are snatched bodily and put out of harm's way.

Wanted to Warm Her Up.

Hank Rhoads has always taken a great interest in the fire department, and feels as if he ought to have a little to say, but he got snubbed Saturday. During the high wind he thought it would be a good idea to warm up the steamer so that it could be got to work in a few minutes in case of necessity, but the big bugs of the department "wouldn't have it"—wood costs so much, you know. If a fire had occurred it would have been seen that there was something practical in Hank's suggestion.

"Tramp, Tramp." etc.

Reno has a tramp boom. The nomads are trooping in from all directions. Most of them travel around aimlessly, caring but little where they fetch up. All they seem to think of is to ride and eat, which they manage to do pretty well.

TAKEN IN.

Gabriel's Advance Agent in Jail for Misdemeanor.

EMIGRANT GAP, March 25.

Editor Gazette:—The crazy tramp who was mentioned in the GAZETTE a short time since, paid us a visit last week. He goes by the name of H. E. Farmer. He camped out near town and neglected to extinguish the fire, which got into some brush and logs and soon made a lively blaze, endangering the snow sheds and the town. A warrant was issued and he was arrested, tried and sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or serve 25 days in the county jail. As he carried no "scrip" with him, Constable Brown placed him in the county jail at Auburn. It is thought he will be examined on lunacy and sent to an insane asylum. GABRIEL Combination and Consolidation.

The anti-monopolists say where consolidation is possible competition is impossible. A good monopoly is better than poor competition, especially in the matter of eating. The Palace and Arcade restaurants have been consolidated and will be run as one hereafter, thus giving the patrons of both more advantages in the way of choice of markets and many other things. There will be no lack of good living in Reno as long as such men as Lemery and Fontaine have their way about what goes on the table. Mechanics are now at work cutting arches between the two restaurants and the lodgings up stairs. When the contemplated improvements are completed the Palace-Arcade Hotel will be the largest and finest in the State. No expense will be spared to make it first class in every respect.

Justice Young's Court.

This morning Justice Young enlisted James O'Hara in the chain-gang for thirty days. He is the man whom Constable Nash brought from Wadsworth for stealing a coat from a farmer's wagon near Hymer's stable. Michael Whaland, for getting drunk and making a noise, had ten days extracted from his freedom, and he will paw the air with a pick and shovel on the boulevard. Johnny Fredericks deposited $20 bail for his appearance to-day, but he didn't show himself and the Court confiscated the wealth.

Irrigating Canal.

The Central Drain Ditch Company consumated the purchase of a right of way through land of D. A. O'Connor last Saturday, and intend constructing a canal through the meadows immediately. The contract has already been let. The ditch will be nine feet wide on the bottom and from five to eight feet in depth.

Crickets in Lassen.

Young crickets are numerous between Susanville and Willow Creek valley. It is to be hoped, says the Advocate, that they will have passed this valley before they become large enough to do much damage. They are about the size of large house flies, and are now traveling toward the East.
